M. J. Coldwell, national leader of the C.P. party accused George Drew, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party of denouncing the government of a friendly nation to gain a "political advantage." He said Drew's description of agriculture in England is false and the truth is that British farmers are now enjoying the best agricultural policy they have ever had.

Scotland Yard and Naval intelligence officers were called in at Plymouth, England, to investigate what may have been attempted sabotage of the 14,000 ton aircraft carrier "Terrible" which was to be transferred to the Australian navy. Seven steel bolts were found in a gear box where they could have done thousands of pounds worth of damage.

In an investigation of alleged corruption in high places in the British government, John Belcher, former Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade, was described as a man "who has lost his integrity through association with an unscrupulous politician." The other man referred to is Sidney Stanley, alien central figure of the "Black Legion."

Rail Hearing Ends Rate Boost Hinted

Argument On Differential Slated For February 2

By John Leblanc

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—(CP)—The Board of Transport Commissioners today concluded the reception of evidence on the question of mountain differential freight rates.

The board adjourned until Feb. 2 when it will hear argument on the case.

If British Columbia shales off its "mountain differential" freight rate, she will be faced with countervailing increases in other rates favoring that province.

This information came to the Board of Transport Commissioners yesterday as it continued hearings in the B.C. government application for removal of the mountain rates.

Leonard V. Knowles, freight traffic chief of the CNR, testified the national line was about to "clean out a lot of barnacles" from the depressed "transcontinental" rates between B.C. and the east.

The transcontinental rates were put into effect many years ago to meet water competition between the seaboard by way of the Panama canal—competition which does not now exist.

HOUSE CLEANING
By "cleaning out the barnacles," Mr. Knowles explained to reporters later, he meant increasing some of the low rates and abolishing others. Originally, these were about half of normal, though they were increased by 15 per cent in August along with other competitive rail rates.

If these rates are increased and the mountain differential removed, it might mean Alberta would emerge the big winner from the mountain differential rate battle.

It is the mountain differential that maintains rates on a consistent basis. If it is removed, the other hand, it does not benefit from the transcontinental rates, which are effective only on through traffic between the west coast and the east.

PET DEER EATS ROAST, BUTTER: OWNER PAYS

OAKVILLE, Ont., Dec. 17.—(CP)—Hammie, a 14-month-old pet deer of Milton Carey, was accused yesterday of eating a roast, a pound of bacon and a half of butter from a supper table.

Dudley Hiltcock, district game warden, said it was the first time he had heard of a deer eating cooked meat.

"I found Hammie about a year ago," Mr. Carey said. "He'd been fed raw meat and he'd always come back to our barn no matter how far he wandered."

Carey said he would make restitution to the neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. M. Millard.

Elizabeth Visits Clarence House

LONDON, Dec. 17.—(RUP)—Princess Elizabeth left Buckingham Palace today for the first time since the birth of her son, Prince Charles of Edinburgh, on Nov. 14.

Elizabeth and Prince Philip drove to Clarence House, near St. James Palace, to inspect it. They expect to move into Clarence House early next year.

IN JAIL FOR 30 YEARS MAN WINS ACQUITTAL

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Using the legal knowledge he had acquired in the prison library, a 47-year-old convict yesterday won dismissal of a murder charge to which he pleaded guilty 30 years ago.

He is Richard Monahan, who in 1918 pleaded guilty to the fatal shooting of Thomas F. Brennan, a pacifist house painter.

But Monahan will not go free at once. He will be returned to the Missouri prison in connection with a life sentence under the Habitual Criminal Act, as assessed while he was out on parole in 1923.

He said he planned to file a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that dismissal of the murder charge made the Habitual Criminal Act inapplicable.

C of C Blames Supply Of Money for Prices

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Increased profits have made only an "insignificant" contribution to higher prices, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce today said.

In a brief prepared by its executive committee and presented to the prices commission, the chamber argued that higher profits have resulted mainly from a larger volume of business.

"Their contribution to increased prices, in relation to other factors," the brief declared, "is also said that 'profits must not be permitted to fall because of the problem of unemployment and raising the standard of living.'"

The Chamber of Commerce held that the organization felt no one group was responsible for the post-war rise in prices.

MOONEY BLAMED
The "moving force" in the price rise was the great increase in the supply of money brought about by the war. Sharp increases in wage rates coupled with lower average productivity had contributed and was an "important factor." The rise in agricultural prices from their low pre-war level was a further factor, so were heavily increased taxes.

The Chamber believed that if government, labor, industry and labor could reduce the present rising price spiral is dangerous to the economy, the result would be "an end to the present inflationary trend."

It declared that the free play of prices is necessary to adjust supply and demand and that interference with it would result in the "loss of political, economic and social freedom."

RELIEF SEEN
It said there had been approximate stability in the money supply for the last two years and that if this were maintained, there was hope the rate of increase in prices would narrow out.

There has been an astonishing increase in the productivity of labor in the last two generations and if this is to continue, capital will be available to permit the development of new methods and inventions.

Trans-Canada Highway

BRIDGE

By Webster

Black Scott

Convincing Case
Can Be Made Out
For Slothfulness

The federal-provincial conference on the completion of the Trans-Canada Highway was at least one important advance.

It closed with the understanding that the provinces and the dominion are in complete accord on the need for such a highway and that a co-operative effort will be made to secure it as soon as labor and materials are available.

It is true that further meetings between the various governments will be necessary.

And the proposal of the provinces that the federal government pay 50 per cent of the cost while the provinces do the work may be countered by an entirely different suggestion from Ottawa.

These devolved pathways to eventual agreement on detail will necessarily consume time.

But the encouraging feature is that, almost for the first time since the highway has been projected, there is complete unanimity between all the governments on the need for the road and the expense of it. The official interest on the part of the federal government which is more than the personal opinion of a single minister.

Traffic Lights Badly Needed

There will be general agreement with the findings of the engineering department that at least 100 more traffic lights are pressing needed in Edmonton's business area.

The formula upon which the department has arrived at this figure is the customary one which provides for one intersection between each 1000 feet of highway. At the present time, the city has only 100 intersections for a 100-mile highway.

Density of traffic far exceeds this minimum requirement at many points throughout the downtown district.

Thus, at 100 street and 100 avenue, the hourly count was more than 1,000.

Other corners for which traffic lights are recommended are Jasper avenue and 103 street, 109 street and 88 avenue, with a daily count of 18,000 vehicles, 104 street and White avenue, with a daily count of 16,152, 105 street and Jasper, with a daily

Those who are most eager for the completion of the roadway and those who are most anxious that its route should follow the logical northern section of the country may be impatient over the prolongation of the talks.

It is a justifiable impatience because the urgency of a good road across the whole dominion is real and concrete.

Such a highway has a profitable tourist significance.

But most of all it is important as representing the completion of Canada's transportation system without which no nation of such vast geographical extent can be fully unified.

Thus the completion of the Trans-Canada Highway along judiciously selected routes is one of Canada's most pressing tasks.

Real progress has been made towards a start on it. And the extent of that progress is best expressed in the words of the Hon. James A. MacKinnon, speaking officially for the federal government:

"The government has been given support for the completion of the highway up to a high standard and as quickly as possible."

This is equivalent to a promise.

count of 15,713, 124 street and 102 avenue, with 15,449, 99 street and White avenue, with 14,707, 100 street and 102 avenue, with 13,013 and 95 street and 111 avenue, with 11,894 vehicles daily.

These are regarded as the most urgent intersections. Others are on the list for secondary consideration.

The award of a traffic light is more than a device for controlling traffic at a given point. A traffic light tends to curb reckless driving along the entire length of any thoroughfare.

For even though the operation of lights along any street is synchronized, as it should be, the necessity of watching for green or open lights tends to check the momentum of vehicular speed which develops along any protected highway while there are some interruptions.

The installation of these lights has been too long delayed. It is one of those jobs which should have high priority.

Edmonton's Useful Citizens

The selection of H. R. Milner by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as one of Edmonton's most useful citizens who have been noteworthy service to the community will be applauded by every citizen.

There is hardly a single community enterprise of value to which Mr. Milner has not contributed outstandingly of his enterprise, his time and his means.

And this is an acknowledgment of the contribution, not of Mr. Milner, but of the city upon which his efforts are expended and of the Junior Chamber for its sagacity in choosing the recipient of its award with wisdom and discrimination.

Indeed, since the Junior Chamber has established this award, all the recipients have been well chosen. And the group of those so honored is building up into a large roll of genuine distinction.

A grateful citizen is a community service of real value.

For nothing so spurs civic enterprise and loyalty as the knowledge that the citizens are appreciative of efforts made on their behalf.

A well-willed citizen is a well-willed city. And a well-willed city has the first ingredient of greatness.

The growing list of Edmonton's most useful citizens is a record of devotion which is the most essential factor in the well-being of any community.

Taxes Affect Risk Capital, But Not Much?

By E. C. Ertl

In The Financial Times

The question of how to finance free enterprise is generally limited to wondering how enterprise can be kept from being a mere speculation and ultimate ownership by the state. And this is the whole heart of the matter.

Nationalization, the antithesis of free enterprise, is generally speaking simply the vehicle whereby the state transfers from those who have the power to control the functions of an industry.

Somewhat, this fight to preserve private enterprise, confining itself to prevention of the state from taking over the whole of the industry, does not seem to be the whole of the matter.

Private enterprise can be killed more effectively by gradually reducing the areas within which enterprise ought to operate but out of which it can be saved.

Another much more effective way of killing it is to reduce the possibilities of getting one's money back, or having it "sweaty" and something by making it difficult for earning a return on one's capital.

Taxes, obviously here to stay, can be used quite effectively to do this, and this is what is being done.

It is not too long since we elected in Canada whose avowed purpose was to stop the state from free enterprise, and thus to ensure its ultimate disappearance, who have to invent new taxes to keep the observer from one step further by proclaiming that these are most interested in the defense of free enterprise have not yet begun to see this matter clearly. If they have, they have not yet found means of fortifying it.

Discourage Investment

It is generally admitted that excessive taxation of income and investment capital to enter any field where the outcome is uncertain and the risk is high.

Risk capital, to be invested in the securities of the state of industry's expansion, can even now not anticipate a substantial increase in earnings without shrinking at the possibility of taxes sufficient to wipe out any real gain on the part of the investor.

Naturally, the absence of a capital gain tax tends to encourage investment, but only to the extent that it encourages the sale of securities of equity, not the holding of equities as such as a form of investment.

There are two ways to go ahead of any first-class statistician who wants to perform a statistical study of speculative risk. The first of these ways is to divide the market into two parts, the speculative and the non-speculative, and to see how the speculative part of the market is doing.

When talking of risk capital we are not now talking in terms of buying a few thousand shares of a company, but in terms of buying a few hundred shares of a company, and this is generally admitted, this kind of money is usually speculative.

By this we do not mean the increase in proportion that might be expected from a rise in the price of the stock, or anything of that nature.

In view of the numerous other factors which enter into the picture, this matter, the increase in production is a problematical possibility.

We are not even considering that the increase in the price of the stock might be better supply the things which it is suddenly in demand for, and so on. What is the point of all this? It is to show that the market is not as simple as it seems, and that the market is not as simple as it seems.

Gov't Is Blamed In Butter Shortage

Wartime Policies, Lack Of Incentive Declared Reason

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Canada's current butter shortage is not the fault of the producers, Roy C. Marler, president of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, said in an address yesterday to delegates attending opening sessions of the eighth annual A.F.A. convention.

The butter shortage is due to wartime policies and the lack of incentive both before and after the Second World War.

"Notwithstanding these conditions, the producers have not adopted a 'dog-in-the-manger' attitude," Mr. Marler said. "They have not protested the importation of enough butter to provide ample supplies for the Canadian people."

OPPOSES MARGARINE "I am of the opinion that had margarine been allowed to destroy the butter industry previous to the war, we would not have had anything at all as a spread for our bread during the war and immediately after."

The AFA president said producers have been opposed to margarine because they thought it was neither in the best interests of the consumers or producers.

Mr. Marler said the federation should urge the Dominion government to not only retain the present volume of swine and poultry products going to Great Britain but consider increasing the quantity of these contracts.

Mr. Marler said he did not think farmers of the prairies ever have been or ever will be satisfied with marketing their grain through a "speculative marketing medium."

He did not anticipate any great difficulty in getting support from the three prairie governments on a

B.C. Shipping Industry Is Faced With Crisis

VANCOUVER, Dec. 17.—(CP)—The Vancouver Sun said yesterday unemployment, sale of British Columbia boats and lack of cargo have caused the biggest crisis in Vancouver's deep-sea and shipbuilding industries.

Although Maritime unions are not over-enthusiastic about the plan, federal government subsidies as "the only answer" to the overall problem, some ship-owners were reported not over-enthusiastic about the plan.

They were quoted as saying: "The United States government has been subsidizing certain of its lines since 1936, but they have not been notable for outstanding success."

Hundreds of shipyard workers have become unemployed here since summer and crews of Vancouver freighters, now being sold, face similar prospects.

The Sun said two 10,000-ton freighters have already been sold, negotiations now are under way for sale of a third, and three others may also be put on the market.

Two freighters are tied up in port with no cargo in sight, the report said, and a third is expected to be idle before Christmas.

Canada's year-old Maritime Commission is studying the problem but marine spokesmen here said it will have to "act fast" to save the merchant marine and shipbuilding industries.

A mass meeting of ship, rail workers is scheduled for Monday to consider the problem.

Boiler Explosion

KOBE, Japan, Dec. 17.—(AP)—One man was killed and five persons were injured by a boiler explosion aboard the British steamship Sudan Tuesday. It was learned yesterday. The Sudan was 20 miles off Kobe, bound for England.

The man killed was Albert John McFarland, 47, of Horse Bay, England.

House Opening

New Life in Canada 'Better Than Dreams' for DP Girl

By Ed Romane

VANCOUVER, Dec. 17.—(CP)—The sorrow and despair of life in war-torn Europe are a thing of the past for pretty, dark-haired Marianna Premovic as she prepares for her first Christmas in Canada.

For the 25-year-old immigrant from Yugoslavia, life in the five months since she arrived here has been "better than the best of dreams."

"Every day has been like Christmas. I don't see how Christmas Day could possibly be any better," WORKS AS GOVERNNESS

Marianna spent her last Christmas at home seven years ago. "Turkey and cranberry sauce wasn't new to me here, ... I've had some a dozen times since I came to Vancouver."

She is employed as a governess for three children of a prominent family.

"My employers are putting on a party for me on Christmas Eve," she said happily. "I know it will be wonderful."

Like many of the 80,000 Europeans who came to Canada this year, Marianna is here to begin life anew after release from a forced labor camp in Germany had left her a displaced person.

"The past is done with," she said today with a slight smile.

"You will understand, knowing Europe as well as I do, how splendid it is for me to live in a friendly country. No distinction among people, not treated as a foreigner—they all accept you as one of them."

FOUR YEARS PRISONER

Marianna was taken from her native Serbia to a camp in central Germany. Four years later she was released when the Nazi regime capitulated.

From there she wandered about Western Germany penniless and without work, until she finally found a job in a Displaced Persons centre.

"For a year I watched thousands of people happily pack their belongings and depart for Canada. Canada was like a magic word to them."

"The only thing missing is my family. I hope my parents, brother and sister will be able to come here one day, too," she said.

"Until then, part of me is still over there."

Reds Finally Agree To Return Craft

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Robert Lovett, under secretary of State, disclosed yesterday that a Russian family has bowed to an official American demand that it return 28 United States naval frigates and three icebreakers. The 23 naval craft were taken by the Russians during the war to help fight the Germans. Since 1946 the State department had demanded their return as separate peace negotiations.

WOMAN DOES IT ALL WRONG: LOSS IS $300

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Mrs. Edith Shack of Calgary made two bad errors. First, she left her automobile on 13th Avenue East with the engine running. Secondly, she left her purse containing $300 on the seat.

When she returned a few minutes later both were gone. Police found the auto yesterday with the ignition keys in it. The rear seat was strewn with the contents of Mrs. Shack's purse, but the $300 was gone.

During the hearing, the five-man court indicated it wished to lessen the charge to manslaughter and pass a prison sentence on the aged father. Crown counsel W. J. Johnston demurred, but Mr. Justice J. E. Adamson criticized the crown for this attitude.

Hrykyn was found guilty last month of stabbing his son in the stomach as aftermath to an argument at Villa. The younger man died in hospital 12 days later. The assize court jury added a strong recommendation for mercy to the verdict.

Brick Workers Get Wage Boost

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., Dec. 17.—(CP)—Agreement was reached yesterday on terms of a new contract between management and employees of the Medicine Hat Brick and Tile Company, Ltd. The new agreement calls for a wage increase of 7½ cents an hour retroactive to Dec. 12. Basic wage at the plant now will be 75 cents an hour, plus a bonus system that had year averaged 11 cents an hour. About 30 employees, members of the Clay Workers Union (CCLU) were involved.

Poultrymen Urged To Retain Quality

WETASKIWIN, Dec. 17.—Exhorting poultry raisers to hold fast to the quality that has made Alberta famous and not to become pacifist because of an apparent loss of market, Hon. David Ure, Alberta minister of agriculture officially opened Wetaskiwin's second annual provincial poultry show in the drill hall at the army camp grounds on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Ure congratulated the Wetaskiwin Agricultural Society on the fine job they had done, not only a year ago but at the present exhibition. There were many entries, he said, which had also appeared at the Toronto exhibition and the exhibition in Wetaskiwin was one that would compare favorably with any show on the North American continent.

He said there was no reason for poultry raisers to become pacifist and that nothing was to be gained by jumping from one business to-day into another one tomorrow. So far as poultry markets were concerned there were markets not yet fully explored, and in maintaining a high quality the assurance of larger and wider markets were assured.

ASSOCIATION DINNER

Prior to the official opening the Central Alberta Hatcheries Association held a banquet at the Grand hotel. There was a roundtable discussion on the outlook for the poultry industry.

Present at the dinner in addition to Hon. David Ure, were J. A. Wingblade, M.L.A., R. D. Jorgensen, M.L.A., of Dugby, C. W. Trave, Alberta Poultry Commissioner; L. W. Dawes, Dominion Poultry Services; Carl Kasper, Strone, Alta.; George Richards, Olds Hatchery; D. Mann, Innisfail Hatchery; R. Leonard, G. Leonard, M. R. A. White, Ray White, all of Red Deer; Mr. and Mrs. T. Galt, Wetaskiwin; Mr. and Mrs. Jim West, Lacombe; Harry Van Dyke and Ralph Mulloy, Wetaskiwin.

Mayor Marley Merner extended the welcome of the city to the exhibitors who came from as far as British Columbia to show their birds at this Alberta provincial exhibition. The mayor complimented the Agricultural Society, under

PILOT KILLS 600 COYOTES

ESTHER, Dec. 17.—Coyotes are plentiful in the Estherville area and ranchers who own packs of dogs are looking forward to a good hunting season. At present the main pack remains open, although one or two of the side roads are blocked by snow.

Many aeroplane owners in nearby villages of Owen, Arden, Valley and Estherville are also hunting coyotes. Last winter one pilot made a record hunt of over 600 kills for the season.

Those auspices the show is being held and mentioned particularly the president, R. Hechard, show superintendent W. J. Pickard and secretary Harry Van Dyke.

Former President Again Chosen

OLDSE, Dec. 17.—At the recent annual meeting and banquet of the Olds Agricultural Society, W. H. Miller, who has been president for the past four years was re-elected for the coming year.

Other officers elected were: first vice-president, Ralph Morris; second vice-president, E. O. Amundson; immediate past president, C. Leach; secretary-treasurer, L. G. Paulson.

Honorary life members named were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Reddon, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Knutson, Mr. and Mrs. James Murray, Roper Eggen, Roper, and Mrs. M. M. Munn, Mr. Eber Frost.

Executive committee of Roper Eggen, L. J. Paulson, L. S. Fisher, Cliff Sturgeon, Jim Watkins, C. Leach.

JUDY GARLAND'S DAUGHTER rehearses with her songstress mother on the set of "The Good Old Summertime," in which she'll make her screen debut as an old-fashioned little girl. Daughter of actress and director Vincent Minnelli, little Liza Minnelli is shown all dressed up for her first role at the age of 2½ years.

Thorsby Trade Board Sponsors Skating Rink

THORSBY, Dec. 17.—The monthly meeting of the Thorsby Board of Trade was held in the club room. The sponsorship of the management of the skating rink was the main discussion. It was decided that the Board of Trade hire the same caretaker as the curling club, namely Bill Cyril, who will be ice-maker and general caretaker.

The skating rink has already been finished and the first skating of the season took place last Sunday. The committee appointed consists of C. Pyrah, Clare Melan, baker and Peter Kinasewich. These committee members are busy preparing a schedule so that all interested skaters and the hockey teams will share equally during the season as to the use of the ice. The skating fees are a little higher than last year, but added expenses and last year's deficit make this raise necessary.

At a meeting in Edmonton the members of the Northwest Hockey league met and drew up regulations for the coming year. The league this year will consist of seven teams: Thorsby, Calmar, Leduc, Stony Plain, Morinville, Namsco and Fort Saskatchewan. The league will operate as a single unit this year and not in two sections as was done last year.

Andrew Carnival Is Big Success

ANDREW, Dec. 17.—Three-day carnival at Andrew, sponsored by the Community Welfare Association, proved to be a very successful one. The carnival was a big success and the treasury bristled with the money.

Cecilia Hildrick Jane Romanuk, Mary Tompa and Rose Louni, who also ran for the high rank, did very well. President of the association is N. Melnyk, and the net proceeds of the organization is used for the purposes as implied by the name. Andrew hockey boys Sunday last won 5-2 with Braderheim. The Braderheim line-up was: Ash Strong, Roland Kroening, Alfred Kroening, Dave Kroening, Buck Strong, Vay Snyder, Neil Flaker, Adolph, Gilbert, Glen, Briggs, Johnny Shult, Aleng Hartel and Shlan Schultz. Andrew players were: David Frumchak, James Achymchuk, Lawrence Sandhu, James Antimolech, Michael Chalk, Mike Zolinko, Nick Budzjak and Mike Dubas.

Institute Clears $100 At Sale

MILLLET, Dec. 17.—Milliet Women's Institute held a most successful Christmas tea and sale of cooking and sewing at the Board of Trade Hall on Saturday. This was well patronized and a very worth while profit was made, the organization clearing nearly $100.00. Arrangements have been made to hold the Christmas service at St. John's Anglican church on Sunday, Dec. 18 at 3 p.m. Christmas Church of Edmonton will take the service.

Children Supply Ukrainian Music

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Dec. 17.—A group of children with their instructor from Nordag gave a concert of Ukrainian music and dancing in the Alex's schoolhouse on Saturday night. The orchestra was composed of violins and mandolins, and the children showed evidence of training and long practice. The dancers were dressed in traditional Ukrainian costumes. Following the show, there was a public dance until midnight.

Officers elected for the coming season are: A. B. King, Edmonton, president; H. L. Wimmer, Leduc, vice-president; Reg. Alpaugh, Leduc, secretary. The league will get underway on Dec. 19 and this schedule consists of a home and home series with each of the seven teams.

Turkey Raisers Receiving 52c

ESTHER, Dec. 17.—Either turkey raisers are wearing broader smiles these days as the Christmas season approaches. Local butchers are offering 52c a pound for Grade A dressed birds. Last year most of the raisers had the bronze winged birds, but this year there is a noticeable change to the white feathered birds that are smaller in size and more suitable for the small family's Christmas table.

TRUSTEES ANNOUNCE $150,000 ADDITION

STETTLE, Dec. 17.—Plans to erect a $150,000 addition to the Stettler school were recently announced by the Stettler school board. The addition will include an auditorium 63 feet by 80 feet with a seating capacity for around 600 people. The addition will be completely modern and will contain showers and lockers in connection with the gymnasium. Four major classrooms will be made available with the completion of the new building with provision being made for the addition of four more classrooms at a later date if they become necessary.

CPR Stands Pat On Tax Question

Railway Contends 1880 Pact Gave Exemption

REGINA, Dec. 17.—(CP)—The Canadian Pacific Railway stood pat today on its contention that an agreement entered into with the federal government in 1880 exempted its property in Saskatchewan from municipal, business and property taxation.

CHOIR BOYS READ CLASSICS DURING SERMON

MAIDENHEAD, Berkshire, England, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Theophilus Moreau, Harlequin, preaches each Sunday in St. Luke's Anglican church, secure in the knowledge his choir boys are audaciously reading "classics" and not distract him with their singing.

They used to wait away the sermon with funny papers. The person didn't blame them, since boys can't be expected to sit through a quarter of an hour's talk about something which is far above their heads.

"But matters came to a head when some of the lads started leaning over to point out funny bits in their papers to others in the choir. It was really most disturbing," everyone.

Now the choir has been provided with "the more palatable classics."

Ambassador Arrives

MUSKOW, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Eleven members of the Communist party, newspaper, announced yesterday the arrival of Karl Marzouk, ambassador to Russia. His arrival in Moscow means that Yugoslavia will be represented by a full ambassador for the first time since early autumn.

HE GETS FIRE WHERE IT HURTS

VANCOUVER, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Firemen battled for hours to bring down a house on fire yesterday afternoon. The fire broke out in a two-story house on the corner of 1st and 1st, and it was not until 11:30 p.m. that the fire was brought under control.

Business as well as property tax could be levied on the branch line, although not on the main line.

Ricelands Afire

RANGBORN, Burma, Dec. 17.—(AP)—A passenger train from Rangoon to Mandalay was stopped by a fire in the rice fields. The fire was caused by a lightning strike and it was not until 11:30 p.m. that the fire was brought under control.

Communities in the area had threatened to burn the rice crop, at present being harvested, to prevent the government from overhauling the rice crop.

Mr. Leslie told the press that the government had decided to continue the rice crop.

Parliament Expected To Open January 20

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Authoritative sources said today announcement will be made before Christmas of the date of the opening of the next session of parliament.

This date is expected to be either Thursday, Jan. 20, or Thursday, Jan. 27.

A date for the opening, Jan. 20, already has been announced in the official Canada Gazette, but it is merely a formality and is no indication of the actual meeting time.

When parliament prorogues after the year the government is required under the law to set a date for the new session. It customarily sets a "pro forma" date about a month hence and then is re-elected through motions in the House each month until the prime minister announces the actual date.

The new session will, by all indications, be the last of the current parliament, which first met in the fall of 1945, and it shows signs of becoming the most hectic of all five sessions.

It will, as the precursor of a general election that may come next fall, see all parties striving for political advantage. The two old parties will set a date for the new session. It customarily sets a "pro forma" date about a month hence and then is re-elected through motions in the House each month until the prime minister announces the actual date.

The main snowfalls of Australia are in the mountains to the south east, where, in winter, the snow is greater than that of Switzerland.

PILOT ERNEST LOANE of Presque Isle, Me., has difficulty reaching his post aboard plane loaded with wounded Chinese Nationalist soldiers. Airplane belonging to Gen. Claire Chennault's Civil Air Transport, made evacuation flight during battle for Su-chow.

Federal Social Security Goal Given by St. Laurent

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said last night in a broadcast address the Liberal party believes social security should be contributory, wherever possible, no individuals and family will retain their sense of personal responsibility.

"We do not believe in riding roughshod over provincial rights," said Mr. St. Laurent in an address prepared for delivery over the CBC free-time political broadcast known as the Nation's Business.

SEEK ONE STANDARD

"But Liberals really believe in security and we really believe in putting social security into effect."

"In co-operation with the provincial governments, we have achieved a national standard of social security and human welfare which assures the greatest measure of social justice to all Canadians."

Mr. St. Laurent reviewed social security measures enacted by Liberal administrations and noted George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, recently had suggested that old age pensions should be raised to $40 a month and paid without a means test beginning at the age of 65.

"What was done," said Mr. St. Laurent, it would cost the country an additional $200,000,000 a year.

"That means," he went on, "every $10 of the personal income tax at present rates for tax increase in old age pensions alone."

REDUCTION PROMISED

"And in almost the same breath, the Conservative is promising to reduce the income tax. Now none of us hope to see a reduction in present income tax rates. But surely any man who stops to think for five minutes must see the Conservative party couldn't keep both promises."

"You can't eat your cake and have it too."

The CPC party, on the other hand, promised security for everyone, but it would be "security in a life of cluttered up with governmental regulations that nothing would flourish except more regulations."

Calgary Phone Subscribers Get Lowered Rates

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Telephone subscribers on the outskirts of Calgary will have their monthly rates reduced Jan. 1 by as much as $1.50, it was disclosed yesterday.

Mayor J. C. Watson said this information was contained in a letter from W. H. Forrester, general manager of Alberta government telephone, Edmonton.

The reduction will be effected by extending the central telephone exchange area from three miles to three and three quarters miles. No reference was made to any change in rates presently being charged to subscribers within the three-mile area.

Assault Charge Is Dismissed

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(CP)—A charge of assault against Leonard Shaw and Kenneth Lynn both of Missinago was dismissed here yesterday. They were alleged to have assaulted Robert Taylor of Calgary and to have attacked his 15-month-old daughter from him on a city street last week.

Taylor, estranged from his wife, testified that the child had been living at Missinago with the Shaw family. He said he took the child from the Shaw home last week.

He said, the two accused drove up in a car, grabbed the baby from his arms and beat him. Both Shaw and Lynn testified that the child was mother had taken the baby and that Taylor started the fight.

Horthy Leaving

WELLSHEAD, Germany, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Admiral Nikolaus Horthy, former regent of Hungary, will leave Germany with his wife Dec. 18 for an undisclosed destination. It is rumored widely they will go to Argentina. Horthy, who was Hitler's captive from 1944 to the end of the war, has lived in seclusion here since his liberation.

Chimneys of Edmonton Throw Their Hot Breath into Frosty Air

SYMBOLS OF POWER are these Edmonton chimneys—but creators of beauty, too, as the white smoke cascading from their tops traces against the clear blue of an Alberta winter morning sky. In this twin study, the tall stack of the Alberta government's power plant is matched in the background by the multiple chimneys of the city power plants.

PROSAC AND UTILITARIAN are these stacks which rise above an Edmonton dry-cleaning plant. But they, too, show how beauty may be seen, even in modern, dull surroundings. The snow-capped roofs visible below the darkness of the chimneys and the white wooliness of the smoke clouds themselves, provide a fitting theme for this picture-poem of smoke and sky and winter.

POWER FOR the lights of Edmonton is provided by the boilers and machinery beneath the multiple stacks of the city power plant, beside the river and near the legislative buildings. The smoke from each stack, billowing out under forced draft from the grates below, blends into a single cloud as it mounts straight into the bright blue and rolls away over the ice-locked river.

SUNLIGHT CREATES a special effect on the lacy cloud of smoke seen above emerging from the chimney of the city incinerator near Edmonton's Low Level bridge. The fleecy outline of the rolling smoke is in vivid contrast to the bare branches of trees, so sharply outlined in the frosty air. The puff of steam from the hotter, more slender outlet below provides a unique balance to the picture.

Alberta Farmers Warned of Waste

Agriculture Minister Ure
Speaks To Stock Breeders

Alberta farmers were warned Thursday that this province may become an "undeveloped area" unless there is a halt to soil and water supply wastage.

Warning was issued by Hon. David A. Ure, provincial minister of agriculture, in an address to the annual banquet of associated stock breeders organizations in the Macdonald hotel.

The banquet, attended by about 300, featured annual meetings here of Provincial Horse, Cattle, Sheep and Swine Breeders Associations. Observing that many of the world land areas, once highly productive, are now undeveloped, the agricultural minister declared:

"We may be moving toward the same undeveloped state unless we stop wasting our soil and water; and try to reclaim land which has already become non-productive." As one remedy the minister urged improved seed.

Barbara Ann's First Professional Costumes

Seamsters Work Day and Night
For Pretty Canadian Skater

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Two months of creative effort have gone into making costumes for Barbara Ann Scott.

Some eight weeks ago the sketches were drawn for two costumes to be worn by the Ottawa skater in her professional debut next week. Since that day seamstresses and milliners—and designer—have toiled over the two filmy pieces of stage raiment to make them "just right."

Sylvia Lund Recent Bride

In a setting of palms, red carnations and white chrysanthemums at the home of Miss Thelma Green, 13089 Stony Plain Road, Sylvia Marie Lund became the bride of Leo Maynard Nickerson.

Harvey and Mrs. and Mr. A. Lund of Bergen and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nickerson of Dunlop. A. J. MacQueen officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, J. W. Hargreaves. She wore a light blue silk gabardine suit, complemented by navy blue accessories. Her colonial bouquet was of red roses and carnations centred with a blue-tinted gardenia.

CURFEW HITS WOO PITCHERS

VICTORIA, Dec. 17.—(CP)—The young fellows are complaining that even pitching has fallen into the lists of curfew.

Victoria city council has decreed that couples can't park automobiles for more than 15 minutes in parks after 8 p.m. in winter, 8 p.m. in spring and 10 p.m. in summer months.

BRIDGE

Thinking Out Plays
Always Pays Off

By William E. McKenney
If the boys in St. Paul, Minn., have their way, the Winter Carnival Tournament, which will be held there Feb. 11-14, will be one of the largest in the country.

In addition to the bridge tournament, St. Paul gives visitors a real show. There is a castle built of thousands of ice blocks, a beauty pageant with the most attractive girls of the great northwest competing for the title of Snow Queen, and a new King of Ice is crowned each year.

Harry N. Daybock of St. Paul sent me today's hand, which was played in a rubber bridge game at St. Paul Bridge-Player Press Grand Slam Club. It is an example of the type of bridge that easterners will find when they go out to St. Paul in February.

Famous Polish Artist Works as Domestic

Hand Which Once Wielded Brush Now Hard at Work in the Dishpan

ELMA, Man., Dec. 17.—(CP)—Mrs. Eugenia Greinert, who once painted a portrait of a Polish president, is now working as a domestic.

Helplessness Out-Dated

Charm, like hats and dresses, can become dated. The charm of "feminine helplessness," for example, which seemed so captivating years ago, seems now to stamp a woman as being out of step with the times.

In these days of skintight living costs and fewer luxuries, a woman proves her mettle and her charm by coping with problems. Instead of wiping her eyes with her "little square of cambric" and bemoaning her lack of fun, fancy clothes, servants and cars, today's charmer takes her deprivations in her stride.

She takes as much pride in the efficient operation of her household as a budget as a bookkeeper does in balancing his ledgers.

Today's charmer, who because of congested living conditions is forced to live in smaller quarters, also takes such handicaps in stride. If she has to live with in-laws, she doesn't make their lives, but her own or her husband's miserable by complaining about her difficulties.

If she conforms to today's standards of charm, she cheerfully makes the most of a difficult situation. Nor does she run the risk of alienating family or friends because of a stubborn refusal to adjust herself to changing times.

A Polish displaced person, she washes dishes and scrubs floors in the Roman Catholic rectory in this town 12 miles east of Winnipeg.

Proud of her "dishpan hands," the points in her spare time in her tiny white-washed room in the rectory. She has been at work recently on a large canvas of St. Anthony which will grace the altar of St. Anthony's church here for the Christmas season.

"It's my present to the church," she said.

With Rev. John Zimmerman acting as interpreter, she said she hoped some day to return to Poland when communism is extinguished there.

She was raised in a family of painters. Her mother painted until her death. A brother still paints. Her husband was killed while flying with a Polish squadron in the RAF.

"Before the war, mother arranged for me to study at the Academy of Arts in Warsaw," she said. "I was six years old, graduating in 1934."

Her work, which was well known, attracted German occupation leaders and she was forced to paint their portraits. In 1944, the people of Warsaw staged their historic uprising with the Germans retreating by burning and looting.

"I lost my paintings, my materials and my studio. The few paintings I still have were with me from that time were ones that friends kept in their homes for me."

Designers Give In To Budget Guides

MONTREAL, Dec. 17.—(CP)—The hard-boiled working theory among the designers and manufacturers of clothes for women might be succinctly phrased: "Give 'em what they can buy, not what they dream about."

This doesn't mean that style and quality are neglected. It does mean that the people who do the planning and cutting and making have learned in terms of both garments and galls.

Come next spring, with bright-colored skirts, skirts, slacks and blouses, the "beary" will work out in practice, as it always has.

Sam Fauriol, Montreal designer and manufacturer, says these will be the high-priced ultra-formidating veil with solid shawl collar.

He says Mr. Fauriol stepped out of character and offered advice to Miss and Mrs. Canada, the average woman buyer.

Common values. Shop around. If you find one butcher selling the same quality meat four cents a pound cheaper than another, which butcher do you patronize? Buy your clothes the same way.

Don't go into restaurants over "creation" you are sure was styled just for you until you look at the price tag and into your purse.

Be sure you examine the seams on every garment. If there are fewer than 10 stitches in an inch, you had better buy very. Try a little pulling pressure on the stand for a few minutes, then skip and peek quickly. Chill until firm.

CRANBERRY SAUCE
Pick over, wash and drain 4 cups of cranberries. Make a syrup of 2 cups of boiling water and 1½ to 2 cups sugar. Bring syrup to a boil and simmer 5 minutes. Add cranberries, bring again to a boil, and simmer without stirring until the cranberries are quite tender, and the skins have all burst. Cool. Chill to serve.

JELLIED CRANBERRY AND ORANGE SALAD
In 1½ cups of hot water stir until dissolved one package lemon-flavored jelly powder. Chill with occasional stirring until as thick as strained honey. Pick over, wash, dry and put through food chopper 2 cups raw cranberries. Add to partially thickened jelly with 1 cup fresh orange juice, 1 cup of fresh orange rind, cut in slices, and the pulp of one orange, cut fine. Turn into individual moulds and mold moulds and chill until firm. Unmould on crisp lettuce.

CRANBERRY AND APPLE RELISH
2 cups of cranberries, 1 pared core apple, 1 orange, ½ lemon, ¼ cup of granulated sugar. Put cranberries and apples through food chopper using the coarse blade. Quarter the orange and lemon, but do not remove skin. Remove seeds, then put the fruit and skins through the food chopper using the coarse blade.

Add with sugar in the fruit mixture and blend well. Chill several hours.

CRANBERRY JELLY
Pick over and drain 8 cups of cranberries. Add three cups of water. Heat to a boil and cook with occasional stirring until berries are very tender. Strain juice through two layers of cheese cloth. To each 2 cups of cranberry juice, allow one cup of warm sugar. Bring cranberry juice to a boil, add sugar and stir until dissolved. Bring to a boil and simmer five minutes. Remove from heat, let stand for a few minutes, then skip and peek quickly. Chill until firm.

Fancy Trimmings With Cranberries

Oranges, apples and cranberries are as traditional at Christmas as Santa Claus.

Oranges and apples to eat any time of the day or night, and cranberries to go with the turkey—Yum! Or, mix them all together for a delicious relish or sauce. This way, you save on the cranberries, which are so horribly expensive this year, and still maintain the familiar tradition.

SPICED APPLESAUCE
Wash and core, but do not pare 6 tart red apples. Cut apples in pieces and add ½ cup meat stock or water. Simmer the apples until tender with a one inch stick of cinnamon and three cloves. Press apple pulp through a sieve and add one tablespoon of vinegar and ½ cup sugar. Stir and heat until quite thick. Dissolve 1 tsp. with pure vegetable coloring or cinnamon candies and chill thoroughly to serve.

CRANBERRY AND APPLE RELISH
2 cups of cranberries, 1 pared core apple, 1 orange, ½ lemon, ¼ cup of granulated sugar. Put cranberries and apples through food chopper using the coarse blade. Quarter the orange and lemon, but do not remove skin. Remove seeds, then put the fruit and skins through the food chopper using the coarse blade.

Add with sugar in the fruit mixture and blend well. Chill several hours.

CRANBERRY JELLY
Pick over and drain 8 cups of cranberries. Add three cups of water. Heat to a boil and cook with occasional stirring until berries are very tender. Strain juice through two layers of cheese cloth. To each 2 cups of cranberry juice, allow one cup of warm sugar. Bring cranberry juice to a boil, add sugar and stir until dissolved. Bring to a boil and simmer five minutes. U.S. Puts Skids To Joint Power Plan

State Department Squelches Ontario-New York Project

By George Bonnid
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(CP)—The United States yesterday squelched a plan for a $400,000,000 power plant on the St. Lawrence River.

The move put skids under joint plans by the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission and the New York State Power Authority to harness the river at the International Rapids near Cornwall, Ont.

It also made impossible any action the federal power commission may take on a New York request for a construction license. But some Washington observers see in it a new glimmer of hope for the larger St. Lawrence seaway and hydro project, hamstrung for years by the United States Senate.

The State Department announced it will not submit the New York authority's application to the international joint commission and gave this reason:

"After careful consideration by the administration and the State Department, it is felt that due to the urgent need for both power and additional transportation facilities approval of the 1961 agreement between the United States and Canada for construction of the St. Lawrence seaway and power project is desirable."

CANADA'S SHARE
The 1961 agreement provides that each country, by legislation, authorize construction of its individual parts of the overall project, estimated now by United States army engineers to be a $907,000,000 undertaking. Canada's share of the cost would be $302,000,000.

Latent defeat for the seaway plan, on tap for almost 30 years, was in the Senate early this year, despite President Truman's recommendation that it be approved.

He said at a press conference last week that he will make the same recommendation to the new Congress in January. He reiterated his opposition to the Ontario-New York plan for immediate action on the hydro phase only.

JOINT ACTION
The President said again yesterday at another press conference that his attitude has not changed. The seaway and hydro project is a matter for joint action by Canada and the United States, not by any province or state.

He informed that Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the unsuccessful Republican presidential candidate, had pressed him on "trying to pick political battles" in connection with the seaway. Truman made no direct reference to the latest move by the state department.

LEFT AT HOME when Alonzo Burrham went to school in Rochester, N.Y., this pup wasn't happy at all. If he was kept inside the house he chewed the window shades; if he was tied outside he barked continuously. Finally let out he raced to school, to be with Alonzo. Teacher says he's a model and silent pup.

NO SMALLPOX CASE SINCE '37

VANCOUVER, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Vancouver boasted yesterday it is probably the most immunized city in North America, far as smallpox is concerned.

Dr. Stewart Murray, medical health officer, said 70 per cent of Vancouver's children have 39 electrical-college seats.

He said there haven't been a case here since 1937.

Dr. Murray was commenting on a report from Edmonton which said only 25 per cent of the children there have received smallpox inoculations.

Unrest Sweeps Italy As Vets, Police Clash

ROME, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Wounded war veterans threw their anti-police rage, arms and crates of police yesterday in an attempt to hold an unauthorized parade. Several veterans were knocked down and injured.

It was the first of two instances of violence in Italy's latest wave of discontent.

The afternoon 2,000 women and children massed in front of the Chamber of Labor for a parade to the interior ministry. They carried a petition for better winter assistance to jobs and immediate shelter for roofless families. But rioters diverted the parade and charged into some groups refusing to disband. Some women were injured.

The veterans met to protest government failure to grant job increases in their pensions. Police had orders to stop the unauthorized parade, but the veterans broke through two police lines.

BABY HEALTHIER BUT COSTLIER

VANCOUVER, Dec. 17.—(CP)—It took the price, but the quality.

A bulletin issued by the Metropolitan Health Association here yesterday said the modern baby costs 100 per cent more than a baby 20 years ago. But the modern baby is a lot healthier.

Your baby today, the bulletin said, costs you $300 where it used to cost $30.

New Fighters For Canada's Air Forces

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Prospects of new fighter planes for Canada's flying forces were in the news today with several developments.

They were:

1. Disclosure by the navy that the aircraft carrier Magnificent is going to be equipped with new British aircraft that are "efficient" destroyers of sub-marines.

2. Reports that the RCAP is planning to use an American jet-propelled fighter rather than the British Vampire for its regular fighter squadrons.

3. Indications that a Canadian mission is seeking patents and licenses from a California aircraft firm that would allow Canada to make a U.S. jet fighter here in addition to the long-range, all-weather jet plane being built in Canada specifications by A. V. Roe company at Malton, Ont.

TO ATTEND SCHOOL
The navy's announcement that the Magnificent will sail from Halifax in January to exchange the Forthright Mark IV aircraft carrier for the latest Super-Hunter—the Fleet V, before returning at the end of January, her pilots and observers will attend the Royal Navy's anti-sub school at Londonderry, Ulster, being schooled in aircraft carrier and joint air and surface operations against subs.

The new plane is an all-weather, night, two-seater monoplane, powered with a Rolls-Royce Griffon engine. It is equipped with four 20 mm. cannon, radar, and the latest airborne anti-sub device.

Polish Veteran Is Charged With Murder Attempt

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Dec. 17.—(CP)—Anton Stulic, a Polish army veteran of the Second World War, was formally charged in police court here yesterday with wounding with intent to murder Miss Helen Schukla.

No plea was taken when Stulic appeared before Magistrate T. O. Gorelickman. He was remanded in custody until next Thursday.

Police said that the shooting occurred Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Helen Schukla, 36, who was struck in the leg by a stray bullet. Miss Schukla was shot in the abdomen. Condition of both women is described as "favorable."

Stulic came to Canada in 1946 with a group of Polish soldiers and worked as a farmhand in the Lethbridge area. He was arrested shortly after the shooting.

IN ELECTIONS

Truman Had 49.5 Per Cent Of Vote Cast

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(CP)—President Truman was re-elected in the Nov. 2 United States elections with 49.5 per cent of the total vote cast—the first time since 1916 that a candidate has won without a majority.

This is the way the 48,000,000 votes Nov. 2 were divided:

Truman, Democrat, 23,104,548 or 49.5 per cent, winning 303 seats in the 531-seat electoral college which, under the constitution, actually selects the President.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Republican, 21,900,625 or 45.1 per cent, winning 189 electoral-college seats.

Governor Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, States Rights, 1,100,312 or 2.4 per cent, winning 39 electoral-college seats.

Henry Wallace, Progressive, 1,100,312 or 2.4 per cent, winning 39 electoral-college seats.

Others (including Norman Thomas, Socialist; Claude Vanecko, Prohibition; Edward Telford, Socialist; Russell Gibson, Socialist Workers), 230,606 or slightly more than .6 per cent, winning no electoral-college seats.

Scots Sing Praises Of Wee Bonnie Prince

EDINBURGH, Dec. 17.—(CP)—"We'll a bit lift in their hearts, Scots folk are singing about Bonnie Prince Charlie with sadness—and loth, man, it's for the first time in two hundred years."

On broad lowland meadows, down inside busy Clyde, among heaving hills and along stark could coast, 'till hear them say:

"They'll has called him Charlie because they love Scotland."

The wee mite cradled in his mother's arms at Buckingham Palace bears a name dear to Scotland.

Around "Charlie" Scots folk spin glorious memories. See how easy Scots slipped into the phrase "Bonnie Prince Charlie" when the wee, wee lass Elizabeth's son would be the first name "Charlie."

His mother, Scots weel ken, loved Scotland. His father, loved his grave in a heathland school. His grandfather, a Scot hero, and his grandfather has Stuart blood.

Go back the last years and all men will ken that Scotland gave Britain kings and queens and this wee lad is one of a gallant company.

Scots extra help but think this wee lad turns out and sends to present Joy.

U.S. Spy Probers Quiz Bomb Expert

Investigators Still War With President Truman

By Douglas H. Correll

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Congressional spy hunters said today the man accused of getting the Norden bomb sight secret for Russia is a ballistics expert who has been spotted and questioned by federal agents.

The un-American Activities Committee also: Showed signs of reopening the Alger Hiss case by asking Francis X. Sayre, former assistant secretary of state and Hiss' onetime boss, to be a witness Monday or Tuesday.

Assigned representative John McDowell (Rep., Pa.) to go to New York as a co-man subcommittee and question other witnesses about Hiss' activities back in the 1930s. Kept its furious feud going with President Truman and the Justice Department. Truman last charged Hiss with espionage in a letter to his son that the committee says came in a "red lettering." That was told a press conference late yesterday.

CHARGE REJUVENATED
Committee members feared at that, especially since a New York grand jury indicted Hiss on a perjury charge on evidence turned up as a result of the committee's spy hearings.

Committee members said they understood the bomb-sight expert testified to that same grand jury that a new grand jury will go more deeply into the case. It was set up after the other jury expired at midnight Wednesday.

Representative Karl Mundt (Rep., S.D.), acting committee chairman, has said the man is a civilian employee of the army at its Aberdeen (Md.) proving ground but is temporarily on leave because of illness. The proving ground tests weapons and all sorts of equipment.

The man is described as an authority on such things as rockets, bombing tables and projectiles in general, but not anyone with a fancy title or salary.

FROM CHAMBERS
Whistle-blower, who testified that he was a courier for a red spy ring before splitting with the Communists in 1938, apparently supplied the man's name to the committee as something of an afterthought.

Chambers named Hiss as among his sources of secret documents he says were passed from government offices, copied on the information on them could be turned over to the Reds, and then put back.

Hiss has denied having any part in such activity and has said he told the truth to the grand jury.

Inside Hollywood
By Bob Thomas
HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Nearing his 40th birthday, Max Baer, former heavyweight boxing champ, has decided he'll seek an acting career in earnest.

"I'm going to sell my house in Sacramento just as soon as I can find a place down here," Max declared. Now in "Africa screams," he reports he has two other films lined up and another on the fire.

Meanwhile, his mammoth brother, Buddy Baer, has similar notions. He's asking Santa Claus for the role of the yearling in "The Harder They Fall." The Harder Baer's story is again on the B.O. calendar and slated to go in February.

HAPPY AGAIN
Dan Bailey is hard at work on "You're My Everything," and says he's not too convincingly—he's happy with Judy again. When I suggested that he'll be up for an academy nomination for his fine job in "When My Baby Smiles at Me," Dan replied, "I think they ought to call off the academy race this year and just give everything to Laurence Olivier."

Quebec Padlock Law To Stay—Duplessis

QUEBEC, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Premier Duplessis yesterday told a delegation of the Canadian Congress of Labor that the padlock law "was adopted and will be maintained."

Toy-Gun Bandits All In Custody
VANCOUVER, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Detective Stanley Craig left by plane last night for Toronto to bring to Vancouver two juvenile wanted for the toy-gun holding of a downtown bank here Dec. 4.

A 16-year-old Vancouver baby-sitter already is in custody here on bank robbery charges. Police yesterday said the trio of boys planned and executed the $1,600 holdup "as if they were big-time."

The boys being held in Toronto are aged 15 and 17. They were arrested Wednesday after having participated in a spending spree. Their descriptions police said, tally with those of the wanted "bandits."

SEES RED TINK
"It pains me to see that your memorandum contains, apart from the good things in it, some not-so-good things—statements which are skin to those made by unworthy organizations, like Tim Buck's," the premier said.

Raymond Lapointe, vice-president of the Congress, suggested to the premier that "if I had books by Karl Marx in my library you could arrest me."

Premier Duplessis answered: "I can no more stop you from having books by Karl Marx than I can stop you from having a red devil. But if our people are threatened with going to the devil we cannot remain indifferent without falling in our stay. In cities we close the houses of prostitution and the padlock law closes down the houses where Communist propaganda is made."

Red Skelton is not among the men who are deriding the current state of the radio industry. Skelton's show moved from the family Tuesday spot to Friday this season and naturally his audience rating was down.

RATING RISING
So Red and his manager, Edna Skelton Bros., figured the drop was because people didn't know about the time switch. Now they are sending out friendly cards to the 200,000 names in Red's fan-mail list. And naturally the Skelton show's audience rating is rising sharply.

SNEEZE COST THIS WRESTLER $35 IN CASH

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Dec. 17.—(AP)—It was the classic sneeze of a 250-pound former wrestler that blew out the lights in Framingham early yesterday.

At least, that was the explanation that the former wrestler, Eugene Hill, 38, offered after his automobile moved down three parking meters and an electric power pole before stopping on the sidewalk.

While a power company crew worked a short circuit and prepared to restore electric service to the area, Hill explained an overpowering sneeze had caused him to lose control of his automobile.

Hill decided that driving while under the influence of a sneeze constituted a dangerous operation. Hill was fined $35.

It was not against the principle of the law but against its spirit, the premier Duplessis replied. There had been no instances of abuses in the past and the courts were there in case we close the houses of prostitution and the padlock law closes down the houses where Communist propaganda is made."

Barbara Ann's Pro Debut To Be Marked By Gift

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—(UPI)—Barbara Ann Scott, Canada's world and figure skating champion, will be presented with a pair of skates made of palladium metal after making her professional debut at the Rosty theatre here next Tuesday.

The skates are the gift of the Canadian producers of platinum metals and have been made by the Canadian Cycle and Motor Co. Ltd. of Weston, Ont., who make all the skates used by Miss Scott. They will be an exact duplicate of her usual skates except that they are made of palladium, a precious metal of the platinum group.

The use for the skates was made in the Sudbury, Ont., district. Canadian consul general Hugh D. Scully will make the presentation at a reception in Barbara Ann's honor which will be held at the Canadian Club of New York after her debut.

Meanwhile, the Ottawa girl is now practicing hard for her appearance. The ice stage at the Rosty Theatre is considerably smaller than those on which Bar-

Increased Tram Fares Planned For Calgary

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(UPI)—City finance committee yesterday recommended that fares on city-owned transit system be raised from four rides for 25 cents to three rides for 25 cents. This would represent a fare increase of about two cents a ride.

Other recommendations approved by the committee would raise the cost of weekly passes sold to the public from $1.50 to $1.75 or to discontinue the use of passes altogether.

It also suggested that the transit system be relieved of its annual $12,000 contribution to the city stabilization fund, which is designed to reduce the city mill rate. The recommendations now will go before city council for action.

Radio Berlin Back Following Blast

Soviets Hint At Reprisals For Transmitter Destruction

By Thomas A. Reedy

BERLIN, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Radio Berlin was doing business at the same old stand again today. Russia's most powerful propaganda voice in Germany went back on the air only 12 hours after French forces had blown up its giant transmission towers.

Soviet commentator Heinz Schmidt began broadcasting again last night on the same wave length and apparently with the same broadcasting power, even though the station's two tall transmitting towers lay shattered in the French section.

KEEP METHOD SECRET

Radio Berlin's personnel refused to say how they managed it. German engineers said they might be using another tower at Potsdam. Schmidt declared in his broadcast that an "order from Washington"—not the French—had caused the day-long interruption in sending.

Mrs. Gen. Jean Ganeval, French commander in Berlin, said the towers were dynamited because they menaced American and British air-life planes flying into near-by Tempel airfield.

The Russians had ignited a notice last month that the demolition would be carried out.

Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, the Russian commander in Berlin, protested the French action. He held the dynamiting was "illegal and arbitrary," and said he was not satisfied with explanations that the towers menaced aircraft planes.

Taschke Rundschau, official Soviet army newspaper, hinted at reprisals.

"This barbaric demolition will be entered in future accounts and all necessary conclusions drawn from it," Editor S. Timeofev wrote.

Former Edmonton Man Is Dead

Arthur Frost, former resident of Edmonton, died in Stockholm, Sweden, it was learned by his sister, Mrs. G. S. Long of Edmonton.

During his residence in Edmonton from 1907 to 1920, Mr. Frost was associated with the firm of Frost and Ingram, contractors. He served overseas in the First Great War with the 48th Battalion, and was a member of the Masonic Fraternity and All Saints' choir.

He leaves his widow, and two sisters, one in England.

They are designed to increase the operating surplus of the transit system which was reported as operating at a "very close margin."

Stock Growers Open Sessions Jan. 6 At Calgary

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(UPI)—

Three federal and provincial cabinet ministers will be principal speakers at 3rd annual convention of the Western Stock Growers' Association to be held here Jan. 6 and 7.

Hon. D. C. Abbott, federal Finance Minister, will speak on Canada's fiscal policy, income tax and exchange control. Alberta Minister Tanner will discuss protection of the owners' surface rights in Alberta's oil development and Alberta Agriculture Minister Ull will give an address on his department's role in a growing beef cattle industry.

One of the highlights of the two-day convention will be a paper on the larger problem and cattle production by R. M. Putnam, director of extension, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

A discussion on the application of the Department of National Revenue regarding the establishment of public herds of livestock south of the border will be led by D. J. Gill, director of extension, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Santa Claus to Arrive By Airplane and Jeep

Santa Claus will come to Edmonton by plane and jeep in time for two big Children's Christmas Tree parties during the next few days.

Nearly 200 youngsters will be guests of Canadian Pacific Airlines Sunday afternoon at the company's bazaar at the airport, when employees' children will attend the annual party.

The kiddies will celebrate Santa's arrival with a tree, candy, cake and presents for everybody.

And at Northwest Air Command Thursday, a mammoth party complete with movies and the RCAF band is planned for 1,100 children of American and Canadian military personnel stationed at the big base.

Youngsters will munch on candy sticks and eat ice cream while watching Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck go through their routines on a screen.

The party, which will be held in the Drill Hall from two to five in the afternoon, will include children of Army, RCAF and United States Air Force personnel.

MANNING DISAPPOINTED

Reluctance of the federal government to indicate how much aid could be expected in construction of a Trans-Canada highway was labelled as "disappointing" today by Premier Ernest Manning.

Mr. Manning attended the highway conference held in Ottawa earlier this week. He was supported at the conference by Hon. D. B. Macdonald, minister of public works, and G. H. N. Mockman, his deputy.

L.P. Danis Is Remanded

Former director of publicity for the Alberta government, L. P. Danis was remanded to Monday when he appeared in police court this morning on two charges of corruption.

Preliminary hearing on the two charges alleging breach of trust and demand is expected to proceed Monday.

Evidence in both cases will be heard before Magistrate Alfred Simpson.

Danis was arrested Dec. 9, and charged with fraudulently attempting to obtain $1,500 from Hamilton Steel Limited, and demanding $1,500 from the same company, a Canadian advertising agency with an Edmonton branch.

Pending trial, he was released on $2,500 bail.

Slippery Road Injures Two

Slippery streets caused a traffic accident in which two persons received injuries Thursday, city police report today.

Sustaining injuries which required hospital attention were Charles G. Roberts 19025 116 street, in the right car, and Ken Stewart of 18016 115 street, severe cuts to the left wrist.

The car in which the men were riding, operated by Roberts, went into a skid at 194 street and 107 avenue, crashing into a light standard at the southeast corner of the intersection.

Roberts told police he was driving east on 107 avenue and attempted to turn to the right when the accident occurred.

$600 Netted By Thieves Overnight

Almost $600 in cash was netted by thieves as a result of one break-in and theft from person during the night.

At Soley's Bakery, 10550 35 street, between $300 and $400 in cash was stolen from a cash box left in a locked dark drawer.

$200 THEFT LISTED

Theft of $200 from his person was reported to police by James W. Holmes, 11418 81st avenue.

Premises of the bakery were locked at 6 p.m. Thursday, and the theft occurred between that time and 6 o'clock when a night watchman came on duty.

Thieves broke a panel from a rear door to release a lock, and then broke a sash holding a padlock on a desk drawer to obtain the cash.

Holmes told police four acquaintances, who stayed in his room Thursday evening, and he believes the money was taken by one of them. The cash was stolen from his trousers' pocket when he went to sleep before two members of the party left.

William N. Olyuk of "crew reported to police his car was ransacked while it was parked near 98 street and Jasper avenue Thursday evening and a woman's purse and a car ornament stolen. Thieves forced the ventilator in a front window to open the locked car.

Worker Burned

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Robert L. Browning, 25, suffered severe burns to both hands and his face and injury to both eyes at 5:45 a.m. today in an accident at the electric light department's power substation on the North Hill.

Securities Act Theme

An outline of the way in which the Securities Act is administered for the greatest protection of the public was presented to Rotary Club members at their luncheon at the Macdonald Hotel Thursday.

Speaker of the meeting was G. M. Blackstock, chairman of the Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

Mr. Blackstock emphasized the necessity of maintaining the proper balance so that the public is adequately protected without restrictions being so severe as to discourage or restrict business development.

He explained the requirements which must be met before the board will grant registration to a company, and measures taken to protect, as well as to protect the profits of promoters and brokers.

Proclamation Of Boxing Day Made

Boxing day will be observed on Dec. 27 this year, according to a proclamation published today in the Alberta Gazette.

Provision is made in existing legislation under the Alberta Interpretation Act for the holiday to be observed on a Monday, when it falls on a Sunday, but to take the holiday observance comply with other regulations, the proclamation is necessary.

Crash Victim Dies

CALGARY, Dec. 17.—(CP)—Mrs. James Webb, 60, who died in a car accident in hospital here at 1:30 a.m. today, was injured in an auto accident 10 miles north of Cochrane Saturday morning.

Wolves (Animal Kind) Still Plague Province

Alberta government spent $220,259 in combating coyotes and wolves since 1944 without satisfactory results.

S. H. Frisland, assistant director of forestry for the provincial government, Friday told Alberta sheep breeders the problem of eradicating predatory animals remains unsolved.

He was addressing the annual meeting of Alberta Provincial Sheep Breeders' Association in the Civic Block.

Coyotes and wolves have been causing increasing concern among sheep breeders and stock raisers he stated.

System of paying bounty has proved a failure, Mr. Frisland said.

The official told the breeders the government would be glad to assist in carrying out an effective system of control if breeders could devise one.

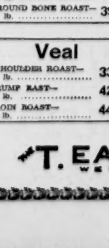

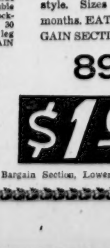

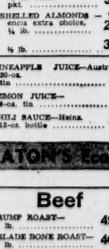

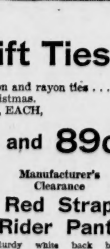

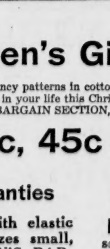

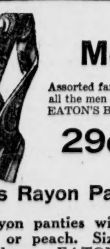

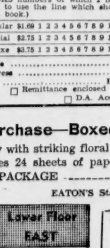

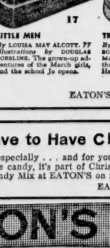

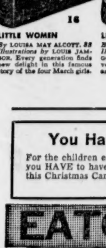

Dr. E. E. Ballantyne, provincial director of veterinary services, spoke on "common diseases in lambs."

President A. E. Pearce of Tawasi lamb provided.
